Austin's Military Playrooms

An initiative of the Mario Lemieux Foundation, Austin's Military Playrooms creates cheerful playrooms for children and families of veterans and active duty warriors. The playrooms provide a safe, calming and comfortable environment within military medical facilities for these special families. Austin's Military Playrooms are currently operating in three locations: Walter Reed National Military Medical Center, Naval Hospital Camp Pendleton and Naval Hospital Camp Lejeune. Proceeds from the 2019 event will help to establish a fourth playroom at a Naval Medical Center San Diego.
